Descriptive Statistics Summary

1. Mean (Average Values)

- SSC Percentage (ssc_p): 67.30%
- HSC Percentage (hsc_p): 66.33%
- Degree Percentage (degree_p): 66.37%
- Employability Test Score (etest_p): 72.10%
- MBA Percentage (mba_p): 62.28%
- Salary: 288,655.40

2. Median (Middle Values)

- SSC Percentage (ssc_p): 67%
- HSC Percentage (hsc_p): 65%
- Degree Percentage (degree_p): 66%
- Employability Test Score (etest_p): 71%
- MBA Percentage (mba_p): 62%
- Salary: 265,000

3. Mode (Most Frequent Values)

- SSC Percentage (ssc_p): 62%
- HSC Percentage (hsc_p): 63%
- Degree Percentage (degree_p): 65%
- Employability Test Score (etest_p): 60%
- MBA Percentage (mba_p): 56.7%
- Salary: 300,000

4. Key Insights

- The salary distribution is right-skewed, meaning some high salaries increase the average.
- The median salary (265,000) is lower than the mean (288,655.40), indicating that most salaries are below the average.
- The most common salary (300,000) is higher than the median, showing a high-frequency salary at that level.
- The highest mean score is in the employability test (72.1%), suggesting students perform well in this area.